

This is a printer friendly version of an article from the Courier-Post
To print this article open the file menu and choose Print.

Back

---

PEOPLE: Ralph Travis to lead medical imaging unit

Gibraltar Construction Corp., based in Gibbsboro, has hired Ralph Travis to lead the company's medical imaging division.

The Wenonah resident came from Booth Radiology Associates in Woodbury, where he worked the last eight years as the chief operating officer.

Travis is a graduate of Rowan University with a bachelor's degree in biology.

Published: January 29, 2008 3:10AM